Oakley Capital Private Equity
Appointment of Arthur Mornington as Partner

Oakley Capital ("Oakley") announces the appointment of Arthur Mornington as Partner, where he will join the private equity team with a focus on deal origination, deal execution and portfolio management.

Arthur Mornington joins Oakley after ten years at Charterhouse Capital Partners where he was a Partner. During his time at Charterhouse he originated and executed a number of the firms' successful investments, particularly in the media and business services sectors.

Further bolstering its deals team, Oakley also announces the appointment of three new hires:

Hayley Whitehead joins as an Assistant Director from Rothschild where she worked in debt advisory and advised on a range of sponsor-backed transactions, leveraged refinancings and restructurings; previously Hayley worked at CIBC World Markets in investment banking.

Lovis von Andrian joins as an Associate from the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development where he worked on fund investments and deal origination; previously Lovis qualified as a Chartered Accountant with PwC as part of the transaction services team.

Alex Golling joins as an Associate from Morgan Stanley where she advised corporate and private equity clients on a range of M&A and public transactions in the consumer retail space.
